05 · ANSWER KEY

E · Produce in context

Compare the form first, then read the explanation and name the rule in your own words.

E1

Nora studies English and French. The café is small, but it is comfortable. Do you want tea or coffee? I walk because the school is near.

Each sentence realises a different controlled decision.

E2

The school is near, so I walk. She is tired, but she finishes the task. Because it is late, we go home. He opens the book and he reads the first page.

The forms appear inside a connected exchange.

E3

I stay home because it is raining, so··· must keep reason and result distinct. Because I am tired so I sleep. -> Because I am tired, I sleep. / I am tired, so I sleep.

The response links correction to a reusable rule.

06 · ANSWER KEY

F · Final mission

Compare the form first, then read the explanation and name the rule in your own words.

F1

Nora studies English and French. The café is small, but it is comfortable. Do you want tea or coffee? I walk because the school is near. The school is near, so I walk. She is tired, but she finishes the task. Because it is late, we go home. He opens the book and he reads the first page. I check the subject and verb first. I also check the meaning and position of every target form.

The mission integrates form, meaning, question structure and self-correction.

F2

Nora studies English and French. And adds a second item. The café is small, but it is comfortable. But contrasts size and comfort.

The audit makes the learner connect a produced form with its controlling decision.
