05 · ANSWER KEY

E · Produce in context

Compare the form first, then read the explanation and name the rule in your own words.

E1

We have some apples. There is some water. Do you have any questions? We do not have any milk.

Each sentence realises a different controlled decision.

E2

We have no milk. Would you like some tea? Can I have some water? There are some chairs.

The forms appear inside a connected exchange.

E3

I have any friends. -> I have some friends. I don’t have no time. -> I don’t have any time.

The response links correction to a reusable rule.

06 · ANSWER KEY

F · Final mission

Compare the form first, then read the explanation and name the rule in your own words.

F1

We have some apples. There is some water. Do you have any questions? We do not have any milk. We have no milk. Would you like some tea? Can I have some water? There are some chairs. I check the subject and verb first. I also check the meaning and position of every target form.

The mission integrates form, meaning, question structure and self-correction.

F2

We have some apples. Some introduces an unspecified positive quantity. There is some water. Water is uncountable.

The audit makes the learner connect a produced form with its controlling decision.
