E · Produce in context

Compare the form first, then read the explanation and name the rule in your own words.

E1

I usually walk to school. Nora is usually early. She speaks English clearly. We study at home every evening.

Each sentence realises a different controlled decision.

E2

He never drinks coffee. They are always ready. She reads the message slowly. On Mondays, we have English class.

The forms appear inside a connected exchange.

E3

She usually is late. -> She is usually late. I drink always coffee. -> I always drink coffee.

The response links correction to a reusable rule.

F · Final mission

Compare the form first, then read the explanation and name the rule in your own words.

F1

I usually walk to school. Nora is usually early. She speaks English clearly. We study at home every evening. He never drinks coffee. They are always ready. She reads the message slowly. On Mondays, we have English class. I check the subject and verb first. I also check the meaning and position of every target form.

The mission integrates form, meaning, question structure and self-correction.

F2

I usually walk to school. Frequency precedes a lexical verb. Nora is usually early. Frequency follows be.

The audit makes the learner connect a produced form with its controlling decision.
