ENGLISH B2 · ADVANCED GRAMMAR

Reporting verb patterns

Control the complementation patterns that follow reporting verbs such as admit, deny, advise, warn, promise and suggest. The lesson connects form, meaning, register and real editorial decisions rather than treating the pattern as an isolated rule.

THE CENTRAL IDEA

Use reporting verb patterns to report speech while preserving whether it was advice, refusal, admission, warning or commitment while preserving the intended meaning and register.

Control the complementation patterns that follow reporting verbs such as admit, deny, advise, warn, promise and suggest.

MODEL

The consultant advised us to delay the launch.

verb + -ing | verb + object + to-infinitive | verb + that-clause

6 GUIDED STAGES · 30 LEARNING DECISIONS

This complete guide combines explanation, visual reasoning, practice and feedback. Separate exercise and answer-key editions are also available from the lesson page.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

|---|---|
| Outcome 1Recognise the main reporting verb patterns patterns in authentic contexts. | Outcome 2Choose a form that accurately expresses report speech while preserving whether it was advice, refusal, admission, warning or commitment. |
| Outcome 3Avoid errors that change time, agency, emphasis or speaker commitment. | Outcome 4Use the structure appropriately in news, minutes, academic summaries and everyday retelling. |

Build meaning before form

Control the complementation patterns that follow reporting verbs such as admit, deny, advise, warn, promise and suggest.

What reporting verb patterns communicates

Control the complementation patterns that follow reporting verbs such as admit, deny, advise, warn, promise and suggest.

The central purpose is to report speech while preserving whether it was advice, refusal, admission, warning or commitment. A successful choice therefore preserves the proposition while making the intended relationship, viewpoint or degree of commitment visible to the reader.

| The manager admitted overlooking the warning. | an admission or report focused on an action |
|---|---|
| The consultant advised us to delay the launch. | advice or influence directed at a specific person |
| The supplier confirmed that the parts were in stock. | a proposition reported as a claim, promise or confirmation |

How the pattern is built

Use this working formula: verb + -ing | verb + object + to-infinitive | verb + that-clause. The formula is a decision path: it identifies the trigger, the clause architecture and the element that carries tense or modality.

The model “The consultant advised us to delay the launch.” shows the complete pattern in context. Rebuild the sentence from meaning to form instead of translating each word independently.

| Choice | Structure | Example |
|---|---|---|
| Gerund report | admit/deny/suggest + -ing | The manager admitted overlooking the warning. |
| Object plus infinitive | advise/warn/remind + object + to-infinitive | The consultant advised us to delay the launch. |
| That-clause | promise/claim/confirm + that-clause | The supplier confirmed that the parts were in stock. |

Choose by meaning, not by surface similarity

Neighbouring structures may contain similar words but perform different jobs. Compare the three reference patterns and name the intended effect before completing the sentence.

A reliable answer explains both why the chosen form works and why a plausible alternative would change the meaning, time relation, information focus or level of certainty.

| Meaning | Best route |
| --- | --- |
| an admission or report focused on an action | Gerund report |
| advice or influence directed at a specific person | Object plus infinitive |
| a proposition reported as a claim, promise or confirmation | That-clause |

Register, discourse and editorial control

This grammar is especially useful in news, minutes, academic summaries and everyday retelling. Its value comes from helping the reader process a relationship efficiently, not from making the sentence sound artificially complex.

After editing, check recoverability, natural word order and consistency with the surrounding paragraph. If the marked structure creates ambiguity, return to a fuller or more neutral clause.

Reason through the pattern

The visual map moves from communicative purpose to structural trigger, then to the final clause. It keeps meaning and form visible at the same time so the learner can justify every choice.

| 01 | 02 | 03 | 04 | 05 | 06 | 07 |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| verb | -ing | verb | object | to-infinitive | verb | that-clause |

DECIDE IN THIS ORDER

STEP 1

Decision 1

Identify the communicative purpose before selecting a form: report speech while preserving whether it was advice, refusal, admission, warning or commitment.

STEP 2

Decision 2

Locate the structural trigger and match it to one of the reference patterns.

STEP 3

Decision 3

Check time reference, clause relationships, agency and speaker commitment.

STEP 4

Decision 4

Read the complete sentence in context and confirm that its register suits news, minutes, academic summaries and everyday retelling.

STEP 5

Decision 5

Compare the result with a neutral alternative and keep the marked form only when it adds useful meaning.

Compare forms and meanings

Use the table to justify each structural choice.

| Pattern | Form | Model |
|---|---|---|
| Gerund report | admit/deny/suggest + -ing | The manager admitted overlooking the warning. |
| Object plus infinitive | advise/warn/remind + object + to-infinitive | The consultant advised us to delay the launch. |
| That-clause | promise/claim/confirm + that-clause | The supplier confirmed that the parts were in stock. |

EXAMPLES AT A GLANCE

|---|---|
| The manager admitted overlooking the warning. | an admission or report focused on an action |
| The consultant advised us to delay the launch. | advice or influence directed at a specific person |
| The supplier confirmed that the parts were in stock. | a proposition reported as a claim, promise or confirmation |

COMMON ERRORS

EDIT THIS

Avoid this pattern

Do not use an object plus to-infinitive after admit or deny.

EDIT THIS

Avoid this pattern

Do not omit the object when the reporting verb requires one.

EDIT THIS

Avoid this pattern

Do not backshift automatically when the information remains current and the context favours no shift.

STAGE CHECK

Pause before continuing

Underline the trigger or decision point, name the rule, and check that the meaning has not changed.

Recognition in context

Compare the form first, then read the explanation and name the rule in your own words.

A1

The manager admitted overlooking the warning.

Gerund report is the best match because an admission or report focused on an action.

A2

The consultant advised us to delay the launch.

Object plus infinitive is the best match because advice or influence directed at a specific person.

A3

The supplier confirmed that the parts were in stock.

That-clause is the best match because a proposition reported as a claim, promise or confirmation.

A4

an admission or report focused on an action

The Gerund report pattern communicates an admission or report focused on an action.

A5

advice or influence directed at a specific person

The Object plus infinitive pattern communicates advice or influence directed at a specific person.

A6

a proposition reported as a claim, promise or confirmation

The That-clause pattern communicates a proposition reported as a claim, promise or confirmation.

Form and function

Compare the form first, then read the explanation and name the rule in your own words.

B1

Gerund report / an admission or report focused on an action

The structure belongs to the Gerund report pattern. Its communicative purpose is an admission or report focused on an action.

Object plus infinitive / advice or influence directed at a specific person

The structure belongs to the Object plus infinitive pattern. Its communicative purpose is advice or influence directed at a specific person.

B3

That-clause / a proposition reported as a claim, promise or confirmation

The structure belongs to the That-clause pattern. Its communicative purpose is a proposition reported as a claim, promise or confirmation.

Guided discourse choices

Compare the form first, then read the explanation and name the rule in your own words.

C1

The manager admitted overlooking the warning.

Gerund report: admit/deny/suggest + -ing.

C2

The consultant advised us to delay the launch.

Object plus infinitive: advise/warn/remind + object + to-infinitive.

C3

The supplier confirmed that the parts were in stock.

That-clause: promise/claim/confirm + that-clause.

C4

The manager admitted overlooking the warning.

Gerund report: admit/deny/suggest + -ing.

C5

The consultant advised us to delay the launch.

Object plus infinitive: advise/warn/remind + object + to-infinitive.

C6

The supplier confirmed that the parts were in stock.

That-clause: promise/claim/confirm + that-clause.

Open reconstruction

Compare the form first, then read the explanation and name the rule in your own words.

D1

admitted overlooking

Gerund report requires “admitted overlooking” in this model. admit/deny/suggest + -ing.

D2

advised us to delay

Object plus infinitive requires “advised us to delay” in this model. advise/warn/remind + object + to-infinitive.

D3

confirmed that

That-clause requires “confirmed that” in this model. promise/claim/confirm + that-clause.

D4

admit/deny/suggest + -ing

Gerund report is built as admit/deny/suggest + -ing.

D5

advise/warn/remind + object + to-infinitive

Object plus infinitive is built as advise/warn/remind + object + to-infinitive.

Controlled transformation

Compare the form first, then read the explanation and name the rule in your own words.

E1

The manager admitted overlooking the warning.

admit/deny/suggest + -ing. The rewrite preserves the core message while adding the intended gerund report effect.

E2

The consultant advised us to delay the launch.

advise/warn/remind + object + to-infinitive. The rewrite preserves the core message while adding the intended object plus infinitive effect.

E3

The supplier confirmed that the parts were in stock.

promise/claim/confirm + that-clause. The rewrite preserves the core message while adding the intended that-clause effect.

E4

The manager admitted overlooking the warning.

admit/deny/suggest + -ing. The rewrite preserves the core message while adding the intended gerund report effect.

Communicative production

Compare the form first, then read the explanation and name the rule in your own words.

F1

The manager admitted overlooking the warning. The surrounding context would then state the same situation in neutral order or with a less marked commitment.

A strong response uses admit/deny/suggest + -ing accurately and makes the communicative purpose visible in context.

F2

The consultant advised us to delay the launch. The surrounding context would then state the same situation in neutral order or with a less marked commitment.

A strong response uses advise/warn/remind + object + to-infinitive accurately and makes the communicative purpose visible in context.

F3

The supplier confirmed that the parts were in stock. The surrounding context would then state the same situation in neutral order or with a less marked commitment.

A strong response uses promise/claim/confirm + that-clause accurately and makes the communicative purpose visible in context.
