INGLÉS · NIVEL A1 · CUADERNO IMPRIMIBLE

Present simple negativo en inglés A1

Negar en present simple requiere un auxiliar: don't para yo, tú, nosotros y ellos; doesn't para él, ella y eso. El error más frecuente es añadir -s al verbo principal después de doesn't, cuando el auxiliar ya lleva esa carga. She doesn't work, no she doesn't works.

META DE LA LECCIÓN

Negar rutinas y hábitos en present simple sin cometer el error don't/doesn't + verbo conjugado.

MODELO

El auxiliar do/does lleva la carga de la tercera persona. Por eso el verbo principal vuelve a su forma base: He doesn't study (no "doesn't studies").

Al terminar podrás

1. Construir frases negativas usando don't y doesn't correctamente.
2. Mantener el verbo principal en forma base después del auxiliar.
3. Distinguir cuándo usar don't vs doesn't según el sujeto.

01 · COMPRENDER

La idea esencial

Aprende a construir frases negativas con don't y doesn't, por qué el verbo principal vuelve a su forma base y cuándo usar cada auxiliar, con práctica progresiva de 6 niveles.

Por qué negar en inglés es diferente al español

En español para negar solo añades no antes del verbo: No estudio, No trabaja, No vivimos. El verbo sigue conjugado igual. En inglés necesitas un auxiliar: I don't study, She doesn't work, We don't live. El verbo principal vuelve a su forma base porque el auxiliar ya lleva la información de persona y número.

Esto confunde al hispanohablante porque en español la negación es transparente. En inglés hay que elegir el auxiliar correcto (do o does según el sujeto) y luego usar la forma base del verbo. La buena noticia es que la regla es simple: solo hay dos opciones, don't o doesn't.

don't vs doesn't: cómo elegir sin error

La elección es directa: si el sujeto fuera he, she o it en afirmativo (es decir, el verbo llevaría -s/-es), en negativo usas doesn't. Para todos los demás (I, you, we, they), usas don't. El auxiliar absorbe la -s que el verbo tendría en afirmativo.

Ejemplo: She studies She doesn't study. El -ies de studies desaparece porque pasa al auxiliar (doesn't). He watches He doesn't watch. Watches pierde el -es porque ya está en doesn't. Esta es la llave para entender el sistema: el verbo siempre queda en forma base después del auxiliar.

Afirmativo	Negativo	Error frecuente
I study	I don't study	—
She studies	She doesn't study	She doesn't studies
He goes	He doesn't go	He doesn't goes
They work	They don't work	—
It works	It doesn't work	It doesn't works

Contextos reales: cuándo usar la negación en present simple

La negación con don't/doesn't aparece para contradecir suposiciones (I don't live there anymore), expresar preferencias negativas (She doesn't like coffee), hablar de ausencias de hábito (We don't study on weekends) o negar hechos (It doesn't rain in the Sahara).

En respuestas cortas también es fundamental: Do you study English? Yes, I do. / No, I don't. Does she work here? Yes, she does. / No, she doesn't. Nota que en la respuesta corta afirmativa no se contrae: Yes, I do (no "Yes, I'm do" ni "Yes, I does").

El error más difícil de eliminar

El error "doesn't + verbo con -s" persiste mucho porque el cerebro hispanohablante tiene que suprimir la conjugación de tercera persona en el verbo principal. She doesn't studies suena lógico desde el español porque estudia ya tiene su propia marca. En inglés, la marca de tercera persona ya está en el auxiliar (does), así que el verbo principal vuelve a cero.

Práctica recomendada: cuando vayas a negar con he, she o it, di primero el auxiliar (doesn't) y luego el infinitivo del verbo (study, work, go). Nunca conjugues el verbo principal al mismo tiempo que piensas en el sujeto.

Errores frecuentes y sus correcciones

Error 1: "He don't like coffee." He doesn't like coffee. He necesita doesn't. Error 2: "She doesn't works on Sundays." She doesn't work on Sundays. Después de doesn't forma base. Error 3: "I doesn't understand." I don't understand. I necesita don't.

¿Cómo se forma la negación en present simple?

Con el auxiliar do/does + not + verbo en forma base: "I do not (don't) work", "She does not (doesn't) work". El verbo principal NO cambia y NO lleva -s en la negación: "He doesn't work" (no "doesn't works"). Con el verbo to be no se usa do: "I am not", "She isn't".

¿Cuándo se usa "don't" y cuándo "doesn't"?

"don't" con I, you, we, they ("I don't like coffee"). "doesn't" con he, she, it ("She doesn't like coffee"). El -s de la tercera persona pasa al auxiliar (does), por eso el verbo principal queda en forma base.

¿Por qué el verbo no lleva -s después de "doesn't"?

Porque la marca de tercera persona ya está en el auxiliar "does". Se dice "She doesn't work" (no "doesn't works"): la -s no se duplica. Es el error típico del hispanohablante al negar en tercera persona.

La regla de una sola mirada

FÓRMULA

I/you/we/they + don't + verb (base) | he/she/it + doesn't + verb (base)

Decide en este orden

1. don't = do + not para I, you, we, they.
2. doesn't = does + not para he, she, it.
3. Después de don't/doesn't el verbo SIEMPRE va en forma base.
4. Contracción habitual: don't / doesn't (más natural en conversación).

Sujeto	Auxiliar	Ejemplo
I / you / we / they	don't	I don't study on Sundays.
he / she / it	doesn't	She doesn't work here.

Errores frecuentes

× "She doesn't studies" She doesn't study. El auxiliar ya tiene la -s.

× "He don't work" He doesn't work. He necesita doesn't.

× "I doesn't like it" I don't like it. I necesita don't.
