INGLÉS · NIVEL B2 · CUADERNO IMPRIMIBLE

Reporting passives en inglés B2

Estas pasivas desplazan la atención desde quien afirma hacia la información y permiten marcar que una idea proviene de otras fuentes.

META DE LA LECCIÓN

Atribuir afirmaciones con distancia y registro formal.

Al terminar podrás

1. Transformar reportes activos en dos estructuras pasivas.
2. Elegir infinitivo simple o perfecto según el tiempo.
3. Usar atribución sin presentar rumores como hechos.

01 · COMPRENDER

La idea esencial

Presenta información atribuida con it is said that o subject + is said to, especialmente en registros periodísticos y formales.

Dos formas, un mismo reporte

It is reported that mantiene toda la proposición después de that. The company is reported to... convierte el sujeto de la proposición en tema principal.

La segunda forma suele ser más compacta para titulares e informes.

Infinitivo simple o perfecto

Si la situación reportada coincide con el momento del reporte, usa to be, to work o to have en sentido de posesión. Si ocurrió antes, usa to have + participle.

Relación temporal	Forma	Ejemplo
simultánea	to + base	He is thought to live abroad.
anterior	to have + participle	He is thought to have left.

Precisión y responsabilidad

La estructura indica atribución, no demuestra que la afirmación sea verdadera. En contenido fiable conviene nombrar la fuente cuando sea posible: According to the report...

La regla de una sola mirada

FÓRMULA

it + be + reported + that-clause | subject + be + reported + to-infinitive

Decide en este orden

1. Con it impersonal conserva la cláusula con that.
2. Con el sujeto promovido usa be + participio + to.
3. Usa to have + participio para una acción anterior.
4. Mantén visible la fuente cuando sea relevante.

Activa	It impersonal	Sujeto promovido
People say he is wealthy.	It is said that he is wealthy.	He is said to be wealthy.
They believe she left.	It is believed that she left.	She is believed to have left.

× Usar to left en vez de to have left.

× Cambiar el tiempo sin comparar los dos momentos.

× Usar la pasiva para ocultar una fuente que sí debe citarse.
